Michael Vanderscheuren

Michael Vanderscheuren grew up in Madison and studied music education at UW-Eau Claire. Throughout college and beyond, Michael has performed saxophone and woodwinds in a variety of ensembles, including concert bands, chamber groups, orchestras, jazz groups, cover bands and polka bands.

Since 2012, Michael has taught band and general music at River View School in Kaukauna where he also serves as Curriculum Support Leader for the District Music Department and as a middle school cross country coach. In 2015, Michael was honored with the “Teacher of the Year” award. Currently, in addition to playing in the Little Chute Community Band since 2012, Michael also performs with Vento Winds, “Behold the Lamb” Christmas Program, local pit orchestras and the family polka band.

Michael and his wife, Heather, have four children who always keep a smile on their faces and they absolutely love living in the Fox Valley. On a Saturday afternoon, the family can be found boating on Lake Winnebago, biking along the Fox River, exploring Wisconsin’s natural wonders or grilling in the backyard.
